Brief Biographies of our YU Student Guest Speakers

David Eckstein

David Eckstein is a Rabbinical Student in Yeshiva University's Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary. He is also pursuing his Masters in Public Administration from Baruch College. David has previously worked as a Presidential Fellow in Yeshiva University's Center for the Jewish Future and in the Israeli Ministry of Welfare. He is an active volunteer in different charities, an avid golfer, and a crazy New York Jets fan.

Jonathan Fruchter

Jonathan Fruchter is currently a 1st year smicha student in RIETS, and received his undergraduate degree in accounting from the Sy Syms School of Business this May. Next year Jonathan plans to continue in the smicha program at RIETS and to pursue a master's degree at the Azrieli Graduate School of Education and Administration. Jonathan previously studied for a year and a half in Yeshivat Netiv Aryeh.

David Rabinowitz

David Rabinowitz studied for two years in Eretz Yisroel at Yeshivat Hakotel and Yeshivat Netiv Aryeh. David received his B.S. in general business from Sy Syms School of Business. After graduating from Sy Syms, David returned to Eretz Yisroel to learn in the Mirer Yeshiva. David is now in his third year at the RIETS smicha program of Yeshiva University, and is a Rabbinical Intern for Mount Kisco Hebrew Congregation. While doing all this, David still finds time to run a landscaping company.

Shmuel Schwartz

Shmuel Schwartz, previously from Los Angeles, is a smicha student at RIETS. Currently, he is attending the Wurzweiler School of Social Work Block Program, from which he will receive his Masters Degree in Social Work this summer. Shmuel eventually wants to work in the field of chinuch, incorporating teaching skills with the skills he gains from his social work education.

We are pleased to welcome these fine students and trust they will have an enjoyable and uplifting Shavuot here in Vacation Village.
